ADVERSE CONDITIONS

Introduction

The Hunter River District Golf Association Adverse Conditions Policy has been introduced to reduce the risk of related injury to Players, Caddies and Officials involved in HRDGA golf events or activities. The policy also contains a number of guidelines to assist players, caddies and officials in recognizing and managing heat stress at such events.

An outline of the dangers of playing sport in extremely hot conditions, heat related illnesses and dealing with heat stress is attached as Appendix 1. In addition, further information on fluid and energy replacement during and after exercise can be found by visiting the website www.sportsdietitians.com

A commonsense approach is to be taken by all those involved in the play of the day.

Suspension of Play / Cancellation of Play Policy

Prior to the scheduled day of play

Where extreme weather conditions or other conditions are forecast for the scheduled day of a district event and it is reasonable to conclude that the temperature will exceed 38 degrees Celsius or other conditions, affect the course of play, the executive committee may cancel play scheduled for that day. Where possible this decision should be made not less than 24 hours before the event is due to commence and this decision shall be, where possible, conveyed to affected players and member clubs.

Day of Competition

In circumstances of extreme weather, e.g. heat and humidity, play may be suspended or cancelled at the discretion of the respective HRDGA Committee or representatives thereof present at the host venue.

The assessment of extreme weather conditions will be undertaken with reference to temperature and humidity information contained on the Bureau of Meteorology Website (www.bom.gov.au) or using measuring instruments on the day of the event.

Play may be abandoned in Hunter River District Golf Association Events when the temperature reaches 38 degrees Celsius (100 degrees Fahrenheit.)

A thermometer will be situated in a shaded area of the course being played to provide the reading.

The Hunter River Official or his nominee will make the necessary decision and will sound a siren or some other method, to indicate play is abandoned for the day.

In the eventuality of cancellation:

District Events

Every effort will be made to re-schedule the event to another day. Any competitor not able to participate on the rescheduled day or at a comparable alternate event shall be issued a full refund.

Pennants

The round will be abandoned and all matches recorded as a draw.

Player Discretion – player chooses to withdraw

Individual Events

During HRDGA competitions held between November 1st and April 30th of the following year, any competitor may withdraw during the event due to adverse conditions.

Pennants

Singles - Any competitor choosing to withdraw during a game will forfeit the game.

Fourball - Any competitor may choose to withdraw during a game. The competitors partner may continue the game. If both players withdraw the game is forfeited.

LIGHTNING POLICY

HRDGA has adopted the lightning policy used by many other golf clubs. Due to the unpredictability of lightning strikes it is not possible to determine when players are at risk. The District will not be liable for death or injury by lightning by attempting to forecast it. Therefore no alarm/warning will be sounded. The District requests and encourages the players to seek safe shelter in lightning conditions. Each individual has the right to determine the conditions are dangerous and suspend play.

THE DISTRICT OFFERS THE FOLLOWING INFORMATION AS A GUIDE ONLY
HOW DOES THE 30/30 RULE WORK?

The rule of thumb is that every three (3) seconds of delay between a lightning flash and the audible thunder associated with the flash equates to a distance of approximately one (1) kilometre. Accordingly, the thirty (30) seconds flash-to-thunder time interval suggests that the lightning activity is approximately ten (10) kilometres away.

WHEN SHOULD ACTIVITY BE SUSPENDED AND SUBSEQUENTLY RESUMED?

All persons should take cover if the flash-to-thunder delay is thirty (30) seconds or less. After the storm has seemingly passed, all persons should remain under cover until thirty (30) minutes after the final flash of lightning or clap of thunder as trailing storm clouds still carry a lingering charge.

LOCATIONS THAT ARE SAFER IN WHICH TO SEEK SHELTER

The following locations would normally be regarded as the most appropriate to seek shelter:

- the safest location is inside a large enclosed structure, preferably with electrical/telephone wiring and plumbing (to provide a safe pathway to the ground for any current) but keeping away from doors, windows, metal fittings and devices connected to the electricity supply;
- an enclosed metal vehicle such as a car, van or bus

WHICH LOCATIONS ARE UNSAFE

The following locations should be avoided:

- buildings with exposed openings
- small structures or sheds
- open fields
- in close proximity to the tallest localised structure (eg surveillance tower, tree, light pole, antenna)
- umbrellas (metal)
- swimming pools, lakes, dams or water generally

Persons should also refrain from contacting metal objects or using the telephone, computers or any other devices connected to electrical phone lines.

AIR QUALITY GUIDELINES

The Air Quality Index (AQI) is an index for reporting hourly and daily air quality in New South Wales. The AQI outlines:

- Air pollution levels, detailed information for those more sensitive to air pollution and ways to prevent harm to yourself

Below is the chart from the AQI website which outlines the levels of Air Quality and when it is safe to participate in outdoor activities.

AQI - Is it safe?

VERY GOOD 0-33	Enjoy activities
--------------------------	------------------

GOOD 34-66	Enjoy activities
FAIR 67-99	People unusually sensitive to air pollution: Plan strenuous outdoor activities when air quality is better
POOR 100-149	AIR POLLUTION HEALTH ALERT Sensitive groups: Cut back or reschedule strenuous outdoor activities
VERY POOR 150-199	AIR POLLUTION HEALTH ALERT Sensitive groups: Avoid strenuous outdoor activities Everyone: Cut back or reschedule strenuous outdoor activities
HAZARDOUS 200+	AIR POLLUTION HEALTH ALERT Sensitive groups: Avoid all outdoor activities Everyone: Significantly cut back on outdoor physical activities

Judging air quality is something that is very difficult to manage, with a sudden change in wind direction turning a perfectly clear day into one covered in smoke (and vice-versa).

The HRDGA recommends the following on days where air quality is a concern:

- Avoid any strenuous exercise before or after your round.
- Consider making changes to your warm-up routine to limit the amount of time you'll be outdoors.
- If you are a diagnosed with asthma or other respiratory conditions, implement your relevant action plan and have your puffer on you at all times.
- If you do suffer from asthma, HRDGA will not allow you to compete without your puffer.
- If at any time a competitor is feeling unwell, they must alert HRDGA Official immediately

In addition to this, on a daily basis, HRDGA will look at changing tournament conditions depending on what the weather is doing.

These changes may include;

- Reducing the number of holes played on a particular day.
- Changing tee times to keep players off the course at certain times of the day.
- Allowing players to have a "Caddy" to help them around the course.
- Cancelling rounds or tournaments.
